

Transforming an aging society into a force for social good LEARN MORE! FIND RESOURCES! GET INVOLVED!

Generation to Generation

A five-year campaign to mobilize 1 million people over 50 to help young people thrive, and unite all ages to create a better future.

generationtogeneration.org

In Portland: Metropolitan Family Service, Generation to Generation Learning Lab Partner

Encore Network

A national alliance of 50 organizations working in 25 states. Members help experienced adults find their encores and social purpose organizations engage experienced talent.

encore.org/encore-network

In Portland: Network members include Age-Friendly Portland, Jesuit Volunteer EnCorps and Life by Design NW at PCC

Encore Fellowships Network

Works with organizations to operate local Encore Fellows programs that match skilled, seasoned professionals with social purpose organizations in one-year, paid, transitional assignments.

encore.org/fellowships

In Portland: Social Venture Partners Portland, Encore Fellows Program Operator

Stories from the Encore Movement

A story bank featuring first-person stories by people using their second acts to make a difference in their community or beyond.

encore.org/story

Research and Thought Leadership

Advancing and documenting a compelling vision for the future of aging through research, communications, writing and speaking by Founder and CEO Marc Freedman and others.

encore.org/research-and-publications

Tools and Resources for Encore Leaders

Encore program map, useful tips, best practices and tools, e.g. Encore Talent Works, a digital guide for recruiting and hiring experienced adults into the social sector.

encore.org/resources/encore-leaders

Go-to Resource for Encore Seekers

The Encore Career Handbook, a comprehensive, nuts-and-bolts guide to making a difference and a living in the second half of life.

encore.org/encore-career-handbook